How is your financial adviser paid?

The fees and commissions payable to Ashton Campbell Financial Services are explained in Part one of the FSG and also below. Consultum may retain up to 5 per cent of these fees and commissions and then pay the balance to Ashton Campbell Financial Services, which engages your adviser to provide financial services. Of the amount received by Ashton Campbell Financial Services from Consultum, your adviser is paid a salary, part of which may cover your adviser's operational expenses.

Service and advice fees paid by you

Your initial appointment is complimentary. At this meeting, Craig Hewett will explain how Ashton Campbell Financial Services operates, what you can expect and the payment options. All fees and commissions payable by you will be explained to you at the time advice is given and will also be detailed in a Statement of Advice, Record of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement(s).

You will have the ability to select your preferred payment option from the options below prior to the provision of advice. All amounts noted below are inclusive of GST:

Fee for service – implementation - initial

An initial fee for service represents the cost of preparing and providing the advice and implementing any recommendations contained in the SoA. This fee generally ranges from $1,000 to $3,000, however depending on the complexity of the advice sought, this fee may be higher. We will advise the exact fee prior to commencing any work on your behalf.

Fee for service - ongoing

The Adviser service fee represents the cost of providing our annual professional services to you. A summary of the services which you receive for this fee is contained in the Client Service Agreement. You only pay an Adviser service fee if you agree to a Client Service Agreement and then, only until it expires. This fee may be up to 1.1 per cent per annum of assets under advice as outlined in the table below, subject to an annual minimum fee of $1,860.

Adviser service fee

1.1% first $500,000

0.825% next $500,000

0.55% next $500,000

0.275% over $1,500,000

Commission for life risk insurance products – Policies issued from 1 January 2020

Initial commission payable under an upfront structure is capped at 66 per cent from 1 January 2020. Ongoing commission under an upfront structure is 22 per cent of the annual premium paid. Both initial and ongoing commission under a level structure will continue to be capped at 37 per cent.

Other benefits?

Apart from the "Other benefits" section disclosed in part one, there are no other benefits received or relationships that may influence the recommendation.
